

DPGC GENTS

Presentation of Prizes 2017!

This year's gent's presentation of prizes takes place on Friday 24th November. As in previous years, the prizewinners have first opportunity to book a place at the event, which has been held for a fourth year at a miserly £10 per ticket, which includes a 2 course meal, presentation of prizes, big prize raffle and an after dinner speaker. This year's event speaker was previously advertised as Campbell Elliott, Head Professional at Hags Castle. Unfortunately, Campbell has been called away to Dubai for that weekend and his replacement speaker will be the inimitable football pundit, Gordon Smith.

Gordon, played for several clubs, including Kilmarnock, Rangers, Brighton & Hove Albion and Manchester City. After retiring as a player, he worked as a football agent and BBC football pundit before being appointed chief executive of the Scottish Football Association in 2007.

Please check the list below for your name (which will be there if you won or was runner up in a competition this season!!) and purchase your ticket from the bar. Prizewinners should purchase their ticket before November 10th, after which the tickets will go on general sale to all gents members.

The event is for gents only, and remember, no jeans or golf attire on the night. The dress code is smart trousers and shirt, tie optional.
